PART?

The Harvest
readers care,
they participate,
they give, and they buy!

The Josephite Harvest is the oldest Catholic mission magazine in continuous publication in the United States.

The Harvest reaches approximately 50,000 dedicated, adult readers with every issue. Its readers include special friends and supporters of the Josephite society of priests and brothers and its mission to the African American community.

Established in 1888, The Josephite Harvest is published quarterly to assist and promote the evangelizing ministry of the Society of Saint Joseph of the Sacred Heart.

The magazine is the:

- voice of the Society to summon both men and means to the work of the Josephites.
- connection to the Society's many benefactors and friends.

Like readers of other established Catholic publications, The Harvest readers tend to be more active and involved in their faith and are more devoted and giving to their communities. Demographically, readers of Catholic publications are more attractive than other large identifiable groups, owing to their:

- Higher than average incomes
- Top management careers
- Advanced educational levels
- Very high home ownership
- Large families
- Strong financial portfolios
- Frequent travels
- Multi-car households
